Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Software Developer position at Nike. My degree in Computer Science with a minor in Design and 3 years of professional experience in the industry makes me a confident and capable candidate for this role.

I have a diverse skill set, including experience with multiple coding languages, which allows me to create a wide range of apps and web pages. My background in art and design also enhances my ability to think creatively when it comes to problem-solving.
Through my various experiences, I have gained experience working on large-scale software development projects, which has honed my attention to detail and teamwork skills.

I am excited about the opportunity to join Nike's innovative and dynamic culture and contribute to the development of cutting-edge technology at the company. Thank you for considering my application. I would welcome the chance to discuss how my skills and passion align with the needs of the Nike team and look forward to further discussing my qualifications with you.

Sincerely,
Rushil Bhatia
